Hi Luis , we already scaled back once are you or don available to chat. There have been no incidents at the residence and just steve's crew at site so I think we can lock the gate since they have keys. Please advise. Thx, leslie

Gentlemen,

We stopped by the site yesterday and there is no activity and no one was on property. You requested that our accounting team be patient as there were over 500 checks to be dispersed but we still haven't received any monies to date and are now approaching $200,000 in invoices. Our advisors have now put their foot down and I must respectfully request payment.

Pro-Tect is now in a position where we will be forced to suspend service until the project resumes.

Very Respectfully,
